Foreign Aid Fight Could Cut Recess Time By Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The current session of Congress faces a final controversy over a familiar issue, foreign aid, as House and Senate press toward adjournment and a month's vacation.

Congressional leaders plan to quit for the year before midweek—and Senate Republicans are urging a drive to wind up things tonight.

Four must measures await final action but only one, a temporary settlement of the long deadlock over foreign aid, is likely to force much delay.

A half-dozen senators may have something to say on that measure.

Sens. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., Alan Cranston, D-Calif., and Stuart Symington, D-Mo., reportedly agreed Saturday to stage a debate against the measure. That could block action, and adjournment.

The measure they are opposing is a resolution to authorize continued foreign-aid spending until March 15, at a rate equal to about $2.6 billion a year.

The regular appropriation for foreign aid has not passed Congress because a bill to authorize the spending is still deadlocked between House and Senate.

The issue behind the stalemate is a Senate amendment, sponsored by Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, calling for total U.S. withdrawal from Indochina within six months, provided U.S. prisoners of war are released.

The administration and its House allies are adamantly opposed to that amendment; Senate negotiators have refused to budge on the issue, and the authorization bill is therefore blocked.

To get around that barrier, Senate leaders agreed to consider the resolution for temporary aid financing, with the whole issue coming due again in the next session.

The House will act first today on the resolution, which includes $385 million earmarked for assistance to Israel, an item popular in the Senate.

The aid settlement could come undone if critics seek to delay a vote by talking. But the pressure to vote and quit for the year is likely to be persuasive.

In addition to foreign aid, Congress must deal with: —An extension to April 30, 1973, of President Nixon's economic control authority. Senate and House conferees went to work today on a compromise version of that legislation.

—A $71-billion defense appropriations bill.

—A bill appropriating funds to run the District of Columbia.

NBC Founder David Sarnoff Dead At 80

Retired Chairman Of RCA Called Father Of Television

NEW YORK (AP) — David Sarnoff was 15 when he went to apply for a job as a newspaper copy boy. He mistakenly turned into the office of the Commercial Cable Co., which hired him as a $5.50 a week messenger.

That wrong turn marked his entry into the world of the electron. It changed his life and indirectly influenced the lives of millions of others who were to be affected by the products of his vision.

Sarnoff, who died Sunday at the age of 80, was a broadcasting pioneer and hard-driving businessman who became a major force behind the development of the electronic media, with all its profound effects on American life.

Born in a small Russian village, Sarnoff came to this country as a boy in 1900.

His first real step on the road to fame came on the night of April 14, 1912, when he was wireless operator at the Marconi station atop Wanamaker's Store in New York.

It was that night the SS Titanic, enroute to New York on her maiden voyage, struck an iceberg and sank with the loss of 1,517 lives.

House Remap Issue Faces Ohio Solons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — With eleven months of debate on taxes and a budget behind them, state legislators return to the Capitol Wednesday to take up the issue of congressional redistricting.

Because of a comparative lag in Ohio's population growth over the last decade, the state's 24 districts in the U.S. House of Representatives must be reduced to 23.

Also affected by redrawn boundaries will be candidates for the state board of education and delegates to the national political conventions, both of whom run from congressional districts.

Two plans—one from the Republican majority; the other from Democrats—are expected to be introduced before the end of the week.

Whatever is passed by the GOP-dominated assembly will probably face a gubernatorial veto, veteran statehouse observers say, adding that, as with legislative reapportionment, redistricting is likely to be finally resolved by the courts.

Other legislative business slated for Wednesday: —A Senate vote on the long-delayed consumer protection bill passed by the House in June.

Continuation of Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearings on the question of lowering the age of majority to 18 to conform to state and federal voting laws.

A break for the holidays has been predicted at week's end.

Indians Ready For Assault On East Pakistan Capital

Viets Drive Deep In Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — Moving under an umbrella of U.S. planes and helicopters, 6,000 South Vietnamese troops launched today their deepest penetration of eastern Cambodia in nearly a year with a North Vietnamese divisional headquarters as their target.

As nightfall approached, two columns of the three-prong drive had reached the southern edges of the 75-square-mile Chup rubber plantation. One was reported only three miles from the town of Chup, on Highway 7.

According to the intelligence reports, the North Vietnamese are now moving back and are along the northern edges of the sprawling plantation.

South Vietnamese officers said their immediate objective was to seize the town of Chup. Chup is on the eastern bank of the Mekong river, 110 miles northwest of Saigon and 35 miles from the border. The French plantation was the scene of hard fighting during the first allied invasion of Cambodia in May 1970 and again last February.

The plantation has suffered heavy damage from U. S. and South Vietnamese air strikes and is virtually inoperative.

The U. S. Command said American B52 bombers pounded the plantation last week, apparently softening it up for the South Vietnamese sweep.

"Large numbers of bunkers were uncovered," an American spokesman said. "Tunnels collapsed, and there were a great many secondary explosions, indicating hits on fuel and ammunition stores."

South Vietnamese officers said a defector told them the B52s wiped out a regimental headquarters and two battalions.

The drive is a new phase of a 25,000-men offensive into eastern Cambodia begun Nov. 22 to destroy enemy supplies, disrupt communication lines and forestall a dry-season invasion by three North Vietnamese divisions into South Vietnam.

Elsewhere, fighting was re-

Fatality Count Reaches 22 In Michigan Tunnel Blast

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP) — An explosion which ripped through a tunnel being built beneath Lake Huron has claimed the lives of at least 22 construction workers.

"We think we have all of them out," said Gerald Remus, a project official. "But if you saw that tangled-up mess of debris, you'd understand how somebody could still be down there."

Investigators still were uncertain today what caused Saturday's blast, which rumbled through the six-mile-long tunnel some 230 feet below the lake surface.

Eight workers also were injured. The tunnel, about six weeks from completion, is being built to carry the lake's water to Detroit and customers of the city's metropolitan water system.

The workers were finishing laying cement in the 16-foot-diameter tunnel, which leads out under the lake to an intake shaft extending upward to within 50 feet of the lake surface.

Remus, manager of Detroit Metropolitan Water Services, described as conjecture reports Sunday that the explosion was touched off by natural gas.

"We want to get the experts in there and see what might have happened," Remus said. The evacuation of bodies and search for survivors was interrupted Saturday night and early Sunday morning by a buildup of methane gas in the tunnel.

Robert Bower, a geologist who examined the construction site a year ago, said gas build-ups occasionally had been detected.

Bower said shale through which the tunnel was cut contained isolated pockets of natural gas.

"They would hit little fissures that would have gas in them and they might blow out for maybe 10 minutes or half an hour, so they would shut down this machinery, so there would not be any fire," Bower said.

He said the amount of gas inside the fissures was small.

Remus said the tunnel had been equipped with sensory devices and would have sounded an alarm in the event of a gas buildup or water seepage.

"It was black down there," said Gary Baranowski of Port Huron, one of the first rescuers to enter the tunnel. "All the lights were out and from my lantern I could see bodies all twisted and bleeding."

Investigators from four federal and state agencies began a probe Sunday.

ALL voting places for residents of the Logan Elm, Circleville City and Westfall School districts will be open Tuesday from 6:30 in the dark and early morning until 6:30 in the dark evening tomorrow to permit citizens to cast their votes on the Pickaway Ross Joint Vocational School levy to provide funds for its operation.

According to Board of Elections employees, results should be available no later than 7:15 p.m. tomorrow, thanks to the voting machines.

PICKAWAY-ROSS State Representative Myrl Shoemaker and several of his cohorts in the house of representatives have introduced a resolution which would limit the power of the General Assembly to increase taxes. . . . The resolution would change the Ohio Constitution by prohibiting the General Assembly from increasing the sales or income taxes by more than one half of one per cent during any ten year period without a vote of the people. . . .

Shoemaker says the resolution is receiving quite a bit of support although the General Assembly has been too busy recently to act on it.

Northern Ireland Senator Assassinated By Gunmen

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — The assassination of a Northern Ireland senator has raised fears that the Irish Republican Army has launched a new phase in its war to reunite Ireland.

A gunman rang the farmhouse doorbell Sunday night of 63-year-old Sen. John Barnhill, a Protestant member of the ruling Unionist party and a militant. When he answered, the gunman killed him with two shots.

Mrs. Barnhill found the gunman kneeling over her husband's body. Then a second man helped drag the body into the living room, put a 50-pound gelignite bomb beside the body and warned the woman to get out quickly. Shortly after he escaped, the bomb went off, wrecking the house.

Barnhill's body was pulled from the rubble early today. Prime Minister Brian Faulkner said the assassins were from a special IRA terror gang based in the neighboring Irish Republic. He accused the Dublin government of failing to stop them.

Barnhill was the first member of the provincial parliament to die in the two years of violence that has now taken 196 lives.

In a sermon delivered Sunday, William Cardinal Conway, the Roman Catholic primate of Ireland, denounced the IRA bombers and gunmen as monsters.

Referring to such outrages as the bombing of a crowded department store Saturday, in which two shoppers and two babies were killed, and the murder last week of a militiaman in front of his children, the primate said: "The entire country, Protestant and Catholic alike, is sickened and horrified by the events of the past two weeks."

BULLETIN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A representative of Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc. and Ohio Valley Gas Co., told the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio at a hearing today it must limit new sales to residential customers.

Paul R. Bigley, vice president and chief engineer for the two companies, said the limitations are necessary if the firms are to have sufficient gas available in 1973 for customer needs.

Bigley said a gas supply deficit is anticipated for 1973, since the two companies, as well as other U.S. firms, have experienced an unprecedented increase in natural gas demand.

The companies must adopt this measure immediately he said, or the 1973 expected deficit will grow critical.

Industrial customers have already been limited in their gas supplies since April 1970.

Peking Frees 2 Americans

Sentence Of 3rd Reduced By Reds

HONG KONG (AP) — Communist China released two imprisoned Americans today, announced the sentence of a third had been reduced and said a fourth had committed suicide more than two years ago.

Richard Fecteau, 43, of Lynn, Mass., who had been a prisoner since 1952, and Mary Ann Harbert, a prisoner since 1968, crossed the Hong Kong border at 2 p.m.

Peking's New China News Agency announced that Miss Harbert and another American, Gerald Ross McLaughlin, had been captured aboard a yacht in Chinese territorial waters northwest of Hong Kong on April 21, 1968. It said McLaughlin committed suicide on March 7, 1969, while he was still under investigation.

The home addresses of Miss Harbert and McLaughlin were not immediately known.

The Communist agency also announced that the life sentence given John T. Downey, 41, of New Britain, Conn., had been commuted to five years starting from the date of commutation. The agency did not give the date of commutation, but presumably it was recently.

Fecteau and Downey were captured by the Chinese in 1952, during the Korean war, when a plane on which they were passengers was shot down on a flight from Korea to Japan. The two men were listed as civilian employees of the U.S. Army, but the Chinese contended they were CIA agents, a charge which the U.S. government repeatedly denied.

Fecteau served 19 years of a 20-year term.

School Principal Gives Up Money

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP) — An Elmira school principal who last August asked that his $1-105 pay raise be used to buy educational supplies has received praise from President Nixon.

Kosmas Diveris, whose salary would have been more than $19,000 a year had he accepted the raise, said Friday he was flattered to receive a letter from the White House.

Foreigners Evacuated From Dacca

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Indian troops were reported within 15 miles of the East Pakistani capital of Dacca Sunday night and advancing from three directions.

Senior Pakistani officers in Dacca predicted the assault on the city would begin by Tuesday they said their defenses were disorganized and crumbling. But Pakistan's military chief in the East, Lt. Gen. A. A. K. Niazi, was said to be determined not to surrender.

A battalion of Indian paratroopers was dropped somewhere north of Dacca on Saturday night. An Indian military spokesman said they advanced on the city Sunday night after beating off a counterattack during which they killed 23 Pakistani soldiers and took 12 prisoners.

The spokesman was unable to say whether the paratroopers had linked up with another Indian column advancing from the Meghna River to the northeast. These troops were reported to have taken Narsingdi, 25 miles from the capital, and to be "now advancing fast towards Dacca."

The main drive on Dacca is from the southeast, and some reports place it near Daudkandi, 20 miles away.

East Pakistani guerrillas in Dacca and its suburbs were said to be awaiting the signal for a general uprising, but so (Continued on Page 2)

Oddsmaker Sees Nixon Leading For Re-Election

NEW YORK (AP) — Oddsmaker "Jimmy the Greek" says President Nixon is "a 7-to-5 or 8-to-5 favorite right now" for re-election.

The Las Vegas oddsmaker, whose real name is James Schneider, also said Sunday that Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine is "under even money" to capture the Democratic nomination in 1972.

"Muskie is 1-to-2 or 3-to-5 the favorite to get the Democratic nomination," he said in an interview on WMCA radio.

The oddsmaker added that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington "are 4-to-5 and have the best shot at catching Muskie."

Rent, Health Costs Come Under Price Commission Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Price Commission is moving toward setting guidelines for residential rent and health costs, which have been in economic limbo since the freeze ended four weeks ago.

A commission spokesman said Chairman C. Jackson Grayson Jr. put the two items on the agenda for the panel's regular weekly meeting today and Tuesday, although still awaiting recommendations from two advisory panels.

"He just doesn't think we can wait any longer," the spokesman said. Announcement of any decision probably would come late Tuesday or Wednesday.

Meanwhile, a Pay Board spokesman said that panel soon will issue long-awaited forms for reporting big wage agreements. Reports are due by the end of the month, but so far the board has failed to decide what paperwork should be involved.

Both pay and price panels have caused grumbling because of delays in knotting the many loose ends still flapping from post-freeze wage and price controls. "Somehow we can't seem to settle anything without a big argument," one Pay Board participant complained last week.

Congress, which also has been accused of stalling on economic matters, nearly wrapped up that work last week. It passed tax-cut legislation which President Nixon signed into law, and sent a wage-price control bill to a joint conference committee of the Senate and House to work out a final compromise.

Also last week the Pay Board approved the new railroad signalmen's agreement, scheduled a review of a pattern-setting contract in the aerospace industry and patched up a spat with a subordinate panel that regulates pay in the construction trades.

The Price Commission was relatively dormant, approving a 3.6-per-cent average increase for all U.S. steel mill products while awaiting word from advisory panels on health costs and rent.

Rents present a particularly tough problem for the Price Commission. Commercial, farm and industrial rents are free from any federal controls, but residential rents have remained subject to stringent freeze rules pending Rent Advisory Board recommendations.

The Price Commission also is awaiting recommendations from the Committee on the Health Services Industry.

There were these developments on the economic front last week: —Business and labor members of the Pay Board outvoted public members 9 to 3 in approving a new contract for the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen, last of the rail unions to reach agreement in a strike-studded two-year round of industrywide bargaining. The signalmen's agreement required approval of the board because it was signed two days after the end of the freeze.

The 42-month pact covers a period going back to Jan. 1, 1970, and calls for raises the union says total 47 per cent. The Pay Board approved retro-

Nixon, Pompidou Confer On Monetary Situation

ANGRA DO HEROISMO, Azores (AP) — President Nixon discussed the Indian-Pakistani war and other international problems today in his first session with President Pompidou of France.

The international monetary crisis did not come up in a 2 1/2-hour morning meeting, spokesmen said. Treasury Secretary John B. Connally and France's finance minister, Giscard d'Estaing talked about that in a side meeting.

Nixon and Pompidou are expected to discuss the monetary issue as well as Nixon's upcoming trips to China and the Soviet Union at later sessions.

Nixon's objective in the meeting with Pompidou—and later with other allied leaders—is to discuss his visits to Peking in February and later to Moscow.

In the meetings with allies,

Nixon's idea is to discuss East-West relations in general.

But the monetary crisis figures to be an important topic here because of France's differences with the United States on how to reach a solution.

A French spokesman described the morning session as "very frank and cordial."

The spokesman said the war in Pakistan had come up at the meeting but he did not elaborate.

However, Pompidou came preoccupied with the international monetary crisis. And Nixon brought a top-level monetary and trade team headed by Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally and including Ambassador - at - Large, David Kennedy, the former Treasury chief now specializing in trade negotiations.

On the foreign policy side, Nixon was accompanied by Secretary of State William P. Rogers, National Security Adviser Henry A. Kissinger and Martin J. Hillebrand, assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

Because it was a working visit to this ocean-girded part of Portugal, the welcoming ceremony for Nixon was low keyed. National anthems were played at Ajies air field, which is operated by the U.S. Air Force, and Portuguese Premier Marcello Caetano was on hand.

Pompidou, traveling in a prototype of the Concorde supersonic airliner, arrived in a torrential rain. No available ramp could reach the door of the plane. The president had to climb down a ladder and got soaked.

Curve Signs To Be Erected On Route 56 Near Leistville

The Ohio Department of Highways is placing large curve signs and directional arrows at two dangerous curves on Route 56 about eight miles southeast of Circleville Pickaway County Commissioners were told today.

Commissioners Dick Tootle, Wayne Hines and Charles Morris and State Representative Myrl Shoemaker had requested the signs earlier this year hoping that improved marking would eliminate some of the many accidents that occur at the location.

Norton Barnes of the Department of Highways informed commissioners the project should be completed by the end of the week.

Circleville Chief of Police Robert Temple appeared before commissioners today recommending that more stringent rules be placed on persons renting the Pickaway County Fairgrounds Coliseum for dances.

The chief's recommendation stemmed from an incident that occurred recently when the police were forced to halt a dance because of the actions of one of the members of the band, a group from Columbus.

TEMPLE recommended that persons renting the facilities at the Fairground should post bond. He also said the rental fee should be increased.

Temple also made the commissioners aware of an objection he has lodged with the Ohio Department of Liquor Control concerning the issuance of a liquor license to Man-Sel's Inc., a restaurant at the intersection of Route 22 and the Stoutsville Pike.

Temple said the license should not have been issued because the restaurant was within 500 feet of the Pickaway County Fairgrounds. He blamed the investigator from the Ohio Department of Liquor Control for not making note of this in his report at the time the license was sought.

Harry Kern, representing the Child Welfare Board, informed commissioners the County Board of Visitors had made several recommendations concerning the Girls Home on East Main Street. The recommendations included painting the hallway, bedrooms, purchasing a new floor covering for the kitchen, purchasing four dressers for bedrooms, replacing three window glasses.

Fire Extinguished
The Williamsport Fire Department extinguished a blaze 1:16 p.m. Sunday when a corn-pickup owned by Howard Thomas, Route 2, caught on fire.

No estimate of damage has been reported. Faulty wiring is believed to be the cause.

purchasing four new kitchen chairs, a broom cabinet, a bathroom cabinet and installation of two folding doors.

The commissioners indicated the recommendations would be followed immediately.

Russian Veto Of U.N. Peace Call Predicted

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Security Council heads for a vote today on a U.S. resolution for a cease-fire and troop withdrawal between India and Pakistan that is basically a copy of one the Soviet Union vetoed Dec. 5.

Some diplomats predicted that if the measure was not amended, it would be vetoed again.

"Everybody's trying his hand at a compromise," said one delegate, Ambassador Abdulrahman Abay Farah of Somalia urged that the five permanent members of the council "show the world some leadership" and lead a search for unanimous agreement.

The council met Sunday night at the request of U.S. Ambassador George Rush, who said the war continued "to rage unabated" despite the cease-fire resolution passed Tuesday by the General Assembly.

"One of the parties, Pakistan, has accepted the resolution," Rush wrote. "The other party, India, has not yet done so."

However, Secretary-General U Thant sent the council a letter from Prime Minister Indira Gandhi of India saying, "There can be a cease-fire and withdrawal of India's forces" on condition that Pakistan withdraw its forces from East Pakistan and reach a peaceful settlement with Bangla Dosh, the independent state proclaimed by the Bengali rebels.

Bush read a White House announcement that the United States was returning the issue to the council "in view of India's defiance of world opinion."

Explosion Fatal To Springfield Man

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Joseph A. King, 67, of near Springfield, died Sunday of injuries received Saturday in an explosion at his home.

Authorities said the retired Columbia Gas System employee was critically injured when he struck a match in a shed filled with fumes from an open gasoline container.

Local Police Capture Two Wanted Men

A pair of men wanted by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department were taken into custody 9:40 p.m. Saturday by Circleville Patrolmen William Pontious and Francis Smallwood.

Roger Douglas Arledge, Chillicothe, and Gary Thomas Bennett, Williamsport, wanted by the sheriff for breaking and entering during the night season, were nabbed by the local officers after they had received a report from the sheriff's department that the two men were in a car on the Lancaster Pike.

Pontious and Smallwood stopped the vehicle at the Fairgrounds Coliseum and took the men into custody.

They were turned over to the sheriff's department. City police are also investigating a breaking and entering at Circleville High School Sunday.

Entry was gained through the rear roof of the building but nothing was reported missing.

Area Mail Box Destruction Investigated

The Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is investigating a rash of vandalism that left 11 county homes without mailboxes today.

Normal Hartley, Dawson - Yanketown Road, was first complainant. He told investigating Deputy Lowell Ferguson that the wood support holding his mailbox had been snapped in two between 5:30 p.m. Saturday and 7 a.m. Sunday.

Investigation revealed that 10 other residents of Dawson-Yanketown Rd. homes were also victims.

Most of the boxes were pulled from the ground by their posts. Red flags were broken off and most of the names were disfigured. The boxes were found about 200 feet from their original positions.

Other mailboxes destroyed were owned by Jack Rogers, Earl Harris, H. W. Fraas, Nellie Harris, Kenneth Shell, John H. Dunlop III, Hercie Frye, Thomas Darst, Dannie Hix and Edwin Sollars.

of appraised value which is about 80 per cent of true value which really means Pickaway County land owners are paying about 32 plus per cent of true value ... If that sounds confusing, it gets worse ...

Industry and commerce for the most part are paying on 40 per cent of 100 per cent true value on real and personal property ...

The legislature is talking about lowering the rate ... Say for instance to 30 per cent ... At first glance that looks okay ... But since industry and commerce are paying at the full rate now, it looks like about a 10 per cent tax savings for them ... Who picks up the tab for that savings? ... The farmer and the homeowner, apparently ... Unless legislature comes up with a "tax reform" that will sock - it - to - welfare recipients who aren't carrying too much of the tax burden right now.

Foreigners

far no fighting was reported in the city itself.

All 16 Pakistani F86 Sabre jets in the East have been destroyed, and there is little artillery and less than a brigade of 30,000 to defend the city.

Elsewhere in East Pakistan, heavy fighting was reported around the army base at the southern river port of Khulna, about 125 miles southwest of Dacca, in the northern Dinajpur sector, and in the Hilli area in the northwest.

Indian military spokesmen reported hundreds of Pakistanis were surrendering in the Comilla sector, about 50 miles east of Dacca, but Pakistan denied this.

As the Indians drew close to Dacca, three British planes on Sunday evacuated more than 400 foreigners from the city in a tense four-hour airlift. They were flown to Calcutta, and among them were about 125 Americans.

Some of the refugees arriving in Calcutta said some foreigners who wanted to leave were left behind for lack of space. They reported that one man clung to the door of the last plane and fell to the ground as the plane taxied slowly along the runway.

Newsman said among those who stayed in the city were 17 American officials, a few U.N. and Red Cross workers and missionaries and about 50 newsmen, a third of them American.

Indian planes resumed bombing the airport 15 minutes after a six-hour cease-fire for the evacuation.

Flitting Across The Sea

There is no doubt that the United States Navy has fallen badly behind other naval powers in recent years, but a new vessel soon to be tested could be a big step in overcoming the gap.

Picture a 100-ton ship which can travel over — not through — the water at 143 miles per hour. That is the vessel to be tested soon.

But even that is only the first step. What is planned to follow, according to Rear Adm. W. H. Livingston, are larger ships operating on the same fast, above-water concept.

Including such giants as aircraft carriers.

One immediate effect of a fleet of such ships would be to render obsolete the nuclear submarine, homing torpedoes and all, at least as far as ocean attacks are concerned.

That could change the complexion of current naval strategy considerably.

While military considerations are the prime motivations behind such innovations, the principle of a speeding hovercraft is equally adaptable to merchant shipping, in which the U.S. lags woefully. Perhaps the long-range results would be even more beneficial for freight and passenger ocean accommodations, especially if the principle is successfully extended to larger ships.

Technological improvements do not necessarily move up the ladder one rung at a time. They have been known to take gigantic leaps. Deployment of a fleet capable of moving at a two-mile-a-minute clip would be such a step.

Extending Remarks

The Congressional Record is a daily transcript of action taking place in the House and Senate. But it is much more. Under procedures which permit lawmakers to extend their remarks, the Record includes such material which was not spoken on the floor of either body.

It is a convenient reservoir for members who want to add their thoughts to a subject or even throw a few accolades to their constituents without going through the formality of actually doing so. In any case, it is a time honored tradition.

Then along came West Virginia Rep. Ken. Hechler who wanted to voice his support for black-lung legislation for coal miners. Unable to get the floor, he exercised his privilege to extend remarks.

"I do not want to kid anyone into thinking that I am now on my feet delivering a stirring oration," Hechler began his remarks. "As a matter of fact I am back in my office typing this out on my own hot little typewriter . . ."

Ecology Incorporated

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

I think I have discovered the equivalent of the perpetual motion machine in writing columns. You do one piece calling attention to the fact that industry, too, is interested in saving the environment, preferably without losing money in the process, and at once the attention-callers tell you that, despite your good intentions, you have missed something important.

Thus, after writing about the Boeing Company's deal with environmentalists and garbage disposal firms in Portland, Ore., to take the city's waste and process it for spreading on a disused bombing range in the desert to create pasture land (with irrigation, of course), I receive calls from all over the place about other proposals for turning metropolitan refuse into useful materials.

One such call came from Mission Hills, Calif., where Vincent Passaro, who claims to have started the synthetic dry cleaning business in America (now a billion dollar industry), has invented something called the Pyro-gen. This is described as a small factory on wheels that recycles glass and metal and produces carbon briquettes, meanwhile running on the energy used from burning part of the waste it accepts. (Sounds like perpetual motion, again.) Not being a scientist, I can't vouch for the Pyro-gen, but it sounds like something Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles should look into.

Then there is the Boeing Company, yet again. The news from the Virgin Islands is that the Caneel Bay Plantation operated by Laurence S. Rockefeller has signed an eight-year contract with the Resources Conservation Company of Seattle, Wash., and Tulsa, Okla., for the building and operation of a new style desalination plant. The Resources Conservation Company turns out to be one-third Boeing, the other participating affiliates being the El Paso Natural Gas Company and the Reading and Bates Offshore Drilling Company.

Again, I am not enough of a scientist to follow the details about the workings of a "flat-plate falling-film evaporator," but it is the most efficient evaporative process yet devised, who am I to contest it? All I know is that if the water at Caneel Bay proves to be as drinkable after distilling as it is swimmable in the raw salt state, we have something coming up.

A cheap desalination process would turn desert seaside areas (the Sinai Peninsula and Israel's Negev wastelands, for instance) into garden spots. As an added attraction, the first venture of the Resource Conservation Company (at the El Paso Natural Gas Company's pipeline compressor facility in El Paso, Tex.) is proving that it can recycle any industrial waste water by separating its potable components from wastes that can be turned into industrial by-products.

So we may look forward to the day that chemical, pulp and paper companies, now major polluters of our streams, will no longer be industrial pariahs. It will be "ecology at a profit" over wider and wider segments of our corporate landscape.

The Boeing Company, incidentally, is going into construction management, having signed to take the general contractor's role in building an 80-unit multi-family housing project for Operation Breakthrough and George Romney's Department of Housing and Urban Development in Seattle. Other developments will follow, with the Boise-Cascade Corporation, the Christiana Western Structures, Inc., Levitt Technology and, perhaps, Alcoa Building Industries taking part with Boeing. Thus our alleged environmental wreckers and military-industrial complex boys take over the movement to make America a habitable place.

Of one thing I am sure: this column will give birth to others of its type. As I say, I've discovered perpetual motion.

Party Invitation Causes Uproar

DEAR READERS: I recently published a letter which I found extremely difficult to answer. I wavered between two opposite solutions. I asked my husband. He asked others. I then asked my readers how they would answer it.

The letter:
DEAR ABBY: My husband's boss has invited us to a "housewarming party," which my husband feels he must attend. I disagree.

His Boss's wife had surgery recently and was found to have inoperable cancer. (The wife doesn't know this.) The boss sent her to Europe (where she came from) to be with her mother while she's "recovering." He told her he'd join her in three months and bring her home. But it's obvious that he's banking on her not lasting that long, because the day after she left he moved his girl friend into their home and they've been living together ever since. (She's a divorcee whose husband got custody of their children, so you know what she's like.)

This unmarried team goes everywhere together, knowing that no one is going to tell his dying wife what's going on. They have now moved into a deluxe high-rise apartment furnished with the European wife's generous dowry, and we are invited to the housewarming.

My husband says if we don't attend it will mean his job, and jobs aren't exactly hanging on trees these days. Am I wrong for refusing to go? Or is husband wrong for insisting that we do?

CAUGHT IN A BIND

My suggested replies:
1. Dear Caught: Your first consideration is to your husband. Close your eyes, hold your nose, and go.

2. Tell your husband that he can help "warm" their house if he wants to, but the setup leaves you cold, and you're not going!

The surprising results:
Number of responses: 877,091. Don't go: 566,001 (predominantly female). Go: 311,090 (predominantly male.)

Some interesting observations:

The youngest voter was a nine-year-old reader of the New York Post. (She voted for Number 2.) The oldest was a 98-year-old female Los Angeles times reader. (She voted for Number 1.)

Of the females who said, "Go," slightly more than 80 per cent added, "your first duty is your husband."

Of all who voted "Don't Go," and indicated that they were under 30, a surprising number added, "and be sure the boss knows your absence is in protest to his immoral behavior."

Those who voted "Don't Go," and indicated they were 40 or older, suggested, in overwhelming number, "Don't go," but make up an excuse a sick child, the wife came down with the flu, or some sudden family emergency came up.

82-Year-Old Woman Active As Western Ranch Owner

By DUANE HOWELL
The Denver Post
Written for The Associated Press

Rugged individualism and the frontier spirit still are alive and well near Kiowa, Colo., in the person of Mary Versipille.

The 82-year-old woman is going it alone on a ranch and has no intention of leaving soon.

Why would this octogenarian choose to withstand the hardships and rigorous chores connected with ranching?

"I like it here. I love my cattle. ... If you keep busy, enjoy work and take pride in it, it keeps a person young in mind," where the majority of women said "Don't go" and the men said "Go."

Some male inmates at the Federal Prison in Sandstone Minn. agreed that the husband should go but the wife should not.

Nine sisters at the Saint Rose Academy Convent in San Francisco voted for "Don't go." One sister voted "Go."

The Padres of Mission Dolores Basilica wrote "After years of marriage counseling experience and the overruling principal of Christian charity and emphasis on commitment to spouse we took a closed ballot and amazed ourselves with a unanimous vote for Number Two."

The mail is still pouring in and my mailman is not speaking to me, but tomorrow I shall use my entire column to share with you some of the most quotable replies accompanying the votes.

And to those of you who responded, thank you.

ABBY

Mrs. Versipille says. Left with five of her eight children to rear after her husband's death in 1934, she stayed on at the ranch 12 miles east of Kiowa because her roots run deep in the area. All her children were born at the ranch and her father homesteaded just four miles from there.

Toy Cannon Kills Boy

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — An explosion from a toy cannon filled with gunpowder has claimed the life of an 8-year-old Hamilton boy and injured four other persons.

Roy Philpot was fatally hurt when the blast occurred Sunday night on the second floor of his grandmother's home here. The victim, and another boy who was not hurt, had apparently removed gunpowder from shotgun shells and stuffed it into the cannon, Butler County Coroner Garret Boone said.

The Philpot youth was killed when struck on the chest and other parts of the body by shrapnel-like material from the cannon.

The four people, who were in a room on the first floor of the house, were hurt when the explosion blew a hole in the ceiling and they were showered with debris.

The dead boy's sister, Charlene, 11; his mother, Doris, 34; his grandmother, Lillie Merida, 53; and a cousin, Lisa Merida, 4; were taken to Mercy Hospital but none was seriously hurt.

"I made up my mind to keep the place in the family," she said. To do that, during the past 37 years she has grown wheat, raised cattle and feed, milked cows, operated a tractor, put new siding on the house, built corrals and new cabinets for the kitchen, repaired plows and poured her own concrete sidewalk. To top it off, she killed a skunk recently with a .410-gauge shotgun after she trapped it in the barn.

"You can't say can't, you've gotta try," she said.

She was flooded out in the summer of 1965, but still maintains she wants no part of town life.

"I'd be afraid to live in the city. It's quiet here and away from the road.

"I figure to live here as long as I can even if I lose my cattle," she said, but she admits her strength is failing her. "God must be with me or else I wouldn't have made it this long."

Bible Class Holds Party

Westminster Bible Class of First Presbyterian Church was entertained at a Christmas party in the home of Mrs. David Whaley on Dartmouth Drive.

Mrs. Beryl Stevenson, president, opened the meeting with verses from Isaiah and readings from "These Days" on the theme of Christmas. After the usual order of business the report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Charles Smith. The incumbent officers were reelected for the coming year.

Mrs. Whaley led devotionals, using three candles denoting in turn Peace, Faith, and Love, the reading from "Ideals."

Particularly she emphasized Geneva as the refuge and shrine of John Calvin. In 1534 he had fled to Geneva for sanctuary from persecution in France for his ever-growing belief and teaching of the new tenets of Christian faith proposed by Martin Luther. Geneva became his home and he died there in 1564. Mrs. Baker had many pictures illustrating her account.

Mrs. Whaley read a poem, "At Christmastime" from Ideals. Gifts were exchanged among the members. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Eva Black and Mrs. W. C. Watson. The evening was climaxed

ENTERTAINERS — "The MOM" entertainers from Chillicothe are shown as they sang during the annual Christmas Party for the staff of The Herald on Saturday evening.

Annual Party Entertains Employees Of The Herald

The outstanding holiday decorations at Pickaway Country Club formed an ideal setting Saturday evening for the annual Christmas Party for employees of The Herald.

Overseeing the evening's activities were Mrs. Steve Jones, Mrs. Richard Davis, Mrs. Leon Sims and Mrs. Tom Purcell. Highlighting the program were the entertainers, "The Mom" from Chillicothe. While the majority of songs were pertinent to the season, several were from "South Pacific" recently presented by Roundtown Players. Participating in the program were Dick Davis, Dick Willoughby, Dave Amey, Bill McGaffney, Steve Cherrington and Daryl Morrison. Throughout the program many references were made to activities or characteristics of members of The Herald staff.

Preceding the dinner cooked by Mrs. Frank Woodward, with roast prime ribs of beef as the entree, shrimp, cheese, wafers, sweet and sour pork, and potato chips and dips were served buffet style along with cocktails.

General manager Dick Davis, was presented a scrapbook containing candid pictures with appropriate captions of all employees. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing to the accompaniment of Dick Alkire at the organ, who also provided music preceding the dinner.

Hidden talent was discovered as several of the party were

Trust Fund Cash Paid

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., (AP) — More than $200,000 representing the first distribution of money under a 500-year investment fund started in 1921 will be released Wednesday to an Indianapolis alcoholic treatment hospital.

The fund was established by a resolution of the Indiana General Assembly from the estate of Charles W. Fairbanks, a former vice president of the United States, in memory of his wife, Cornelia Cole Fairbanks.

Under terms of the resolution, $50,000 was invested for a period of 500 years, with interest or income from the investment to be distributed every 50 years to a worthwhile civic purpose in Indianapolis.

The first distribution of $207,000 will be made in ceremonies Wednesday to the new Cornelia Cole Fairbanks Memorial Hospital. The money was earmarked for the hospital two years ago by the board of trustees which administers the fund.

The hospital opened last May.

It has been estimated that about 450 lavish mansions in the $400,000 to $500,000 bracket are empty, waiting for rich buyers to snatch them up.

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC and CBS came up with a couple of better-than-average action feature films over the weekend, not gems but solid, well-paced crime stories.

State Income Tax Fought

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A statewide organization intent on repeal of Ohio's income tax passed by the state legislature last week was formed here late Sunday.

Organizers say it is to be known as ROUT, an acronym drawn from the organization's slogan, "Repeal Ohio's Unfair Tax."

A spokesman said an initiative petition would be readied for circulation by mid week. The signatures of more than 95,000 registered voters are required to force the new tax onto a statewide ballot.

The spokesman said "public outrage" at the passage of the tax had prompted the formation of ROUT, a coalition of a number of anti-tax individuals and groups from across the state.

Membership was estimated at between "600 and 2,500 people."

Waste Plan Discussed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Army Corps of Engineers plans to set up five pilot regional waste treatment projects around the country are to be the principal points of discussion today at a national conference on waste water treatment at Ohio State University.

One of those pilot projects is planned for the Cleveland-Akron area.

The concept of regionalization of treatment facilities has brought sharp criticism recently from the nation's Environmental Protection Agency. Lt. Gen. Frederick Clarke, chief of the Corps of Engineers, will deliver the keynote address. Eugene Jensen, the EPA's chief of water resources, will also address conference participants.

The one-day meeting is sponsored by the Ohio Environmental Council's 30 member organizations and Ohio State University's School of Natural Resources.

Big Belt Buckles Blamed For Nagging Navel Woes

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Big belt buckles rubbing against the tummy can cause a nagging navel, say two researchers who have been studying assorted ills among hippies.

The researchers also say that preventive medicine—particularly a good dose of soap and water—is about the best solution for combatting such medical woes.

Dr. Joseph M. Wilentz, a Fort Lauderdale dermatologist, and Dr. Robert A. Berger of New York City, have published their findings on hippie malaise in a medical journal.

Medical problems which have been rather uncommon in the past 100 years are plaguing many hippies, the doctors said. In particular, they cited itching scalps and skin rash.

Wilentz said some of the scalp trouble stems from a belief that if you don't wash your hair, you won't go bald.

"I heard this over and over when we'd go down to the communes," Wilentz said.

After a year or so without washing their hair many hippies complain about an itching head.

"It's not the dirt but the itching that's bothering him," Wilentz said. "So, he gets some treatment and takes a hot shower and the itching stops.

"And then he goes right back to the way he lived before. Six months later we'll see him again with the same problem."

Another complaint—mostly from women—is a fiercely itching rash affecting the belly button and stomach. Wilentz says the top of big belt buckles when worn with low slung pants rubs the midriff and results in a rash.

Wilentz said a condition called "vagabond skin," named for an affliction dubbed plagued hoboos, is making a comeback.

He and Berger dubbed the condition "hippie skin." They said the condition is marked by lice, bed bug bites, patches of missing skin and caked dirt on the body.

Hippie headbands also produce a rash which hasn't been seen since hats were common, Wilentz said.

He also discussed a more modern problem — hippies who are allergic to marijuana.

"They wind up with 'flannel mouth,' an extreme dryness which feels like they've just sucked a lemon," Wilentz said.

Other symptoms include bloodshot eyes, sinus trouble and even asthma.

Said one youth who had the malady: "I have been rejected by grass."

State Board May Revoke School Charter

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Board of Education convenes here today for its regular December meeting with revocation of the charter of Jefferson High School in Adams County topping the list of issues to be considered.

The State Department of Education has charged the school, one of five in the Ohio Valley School District, with failure to meet state minimum requirements in a number of areas. The areas include:

—The school, with an enrollment of 116 in grades nine through twelve, offers only 25 classroom units to its students. Forty-five are required.

—The school offers neither foreign language instruction nor guidance services.

—Course offerings in physical education, industrial arts and home economics have been adjudged below state standards.

Other items on the board's agenda:

—Chartering the newly-consolidated Harrison Hills City School District in Harrison County.

—The question of equitable representation of school districts on joint vocational school district boards of education.

—Approval of proposed expansion of the Hamilton County Joint Vocational School District Board from 25 to 33 members.

—Extension of a $545,000 contract for construction of a vocational education facility at the Chaffin Vocational Center in the Youngstown School District.

DP&L Strike Continues

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—The 21-county area served by the Dayton Power & Light Co. continued to receive essential gas and electrical services today despite a three-day-old strike by the Utility Workers Union.

The company's supervisors took over key jobs at power generating plants and gas distribution centers early Saturday following a strike vote late Friday by the 2,400 members of Local 175. The vote came after negotiations had broken down on a new contract to replace the one that had expired Oct. 26.

The union is asking an 11 per cent salary increase. The company has offered a 6.2 per cent hike. Other issues remain unresolved as well.

An injunction was issued against the union late Saturday by a Montgomery County Common Pleas Court judge limiting the number of pickets to four per location and enjoining the union from interference with movement to and from company property after a series of incidents were reported during the early hours of the strike.

A company spokesman said that before the injunction was granted, helicopters had to be used in some cases to ferry supervisors and supplies past pickets and barrier set up at the entrance to some of the utility's operations.

Marathon Walks Held For Hungry

By MARY SCHWALBAUGH

On Nov. 14, six adults and fifteen boys and girls went on a Marathon Walk. They started from Shepherd Road on Route 23 around 1 p.m. They completed the first ten miles in three hours.

It took two hours to walk the rest of the way, as everyone got slower and slower and tired and more tired! They ended their walk at a restaurant just west of the Revco Drug Store on West Main Street, Circleville, around 6 p.m.

When they got to the restaurant they all dropped into seats as they were very, very tired. They had something to eat and drink and rested awhile before they started back home by automobiles.

Six of the walkers were from Teays Valley High School. They were Elmer and Nolan Hines, Tim Triance, Ted Ross, Jimmy Kuhlwein, and Mary Schwalbaugh.

There were some sore feet a few days later! Walkers were sponsored at 50 cents per mile on the Marathon Walk.

The Luther League of St. Matthew Lutheran Church of Lockbourne, collected $200 in this manner for Pakistan refugees.

By PATTY MCINTYRE

Sixteen Teays Valley students walked in the CROP Hike from Circleville to Ashville November 21. They were: Dee Hoover, Susan Reese, Rick Peters, Jan Roberts, Janice Wilson, Darlene Neff, Jerry Sabine, Carl Snyder, Cindy Beatty, Stephanie Cain, Jill Trego, Diana Pobst, Wilson Ett, Deb Helser, Janice Glick, and Patty McIntyre.

Most of the students said that the walk was a lot of fun but that their legs were sore afterwards. However, they did say that it was worth the time and effort because it was for a worthy cause.

When asked if they would walk if asked tomorrow, there were a few NO's but a lot of enthusiastic YES's!

The 226 young Pickaway County Hikers had $3,790 in pledges from their sponsors. These funds will be used through Church World Service to provide emergency food in disaster areas and to initiate local food production projects whereby the hungry can begin to raise their own food.

staccato dots and dashes of the message from the British steamship: "Hit an iceberg. Sinking fast." For the next 72 hours, he told the world about the disaster.

The Titanic disaster served to focus worldwide attention on the vast potential of radio and the new medium advanced rapidly after that. So did Sarnoff.

In 1916 he wrote a memorandum to his superiors proposing that a "radio music box" could be developed to broadcast programs directly into the home.

In 1923 he penned another memo: "I believe that television, which is the technical name for seeing as well as hearing by radio, will come to pass in the future."

But he was ahead of television technology for the time being, so he turned to another interest — the formation of a central broadcasting organization through which RCA could feed a number of interconnected radio stations.

NBC was put together in 1926, and Sarnoff became president of RCA in 1930, a year after the company acquired Victor Talking Machine Co.

U.S. Keeps Israel Penned By Holding Back Phantoms

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration's version of a Mideast military balance is an Israel strong enough to defend against an Arab attack into territory she now holds — but not mighty enough to strike deep into Egypt.

The United States is committed to preventing the balance of power from swinging against Israel. But just what constitutes a "balance" is usually in some disagreement.

The United States has yet to supply the additional Phantom jets Israel wants.

According to the U.S. estimate, Israel's army of some 285,000 men is superior to Egypt's 400,000-man army and Jordan's 100,000-man force combined. The natives of the opposing sides are too small to make much difference either way.

Air power is rated a key factor. On this, the U.S. analysts say more planes for Egypt would do her little good now because she lacks the pilots to fly them.

They say Israel has enough planes for defense over the land she now holds, and that a larger Israeli air force might have the power to range through Egypt — and suffer unacceptably high losses.

Israeli planes flying into Egypt would face missile defenses emplaced since the 1967 war, and possibly Soviet as well as Egyptian planes. In 1967 the Israelis were able to launch a pre-emptive strike, destroying much of Egypt's air force on the ground.

The U.S. calculation presumes that under a "balance" the Israelis would be able to repel Arab attackers without overly heavy losses to Israel.

It figures Egypt's canal-crossing capability is as yet limited, though Israel would suffer more losses now in repelling an Arab invasion than it did in the brief 1967 fight.

The "balance" still would prevail, in the U.S. view, even with Soviet pilots on Egypt's side, providing they flew only defensive missions.

But Soviet offensive strikes or other operations over Israeli-held territory could quickly tip the scale against Israel.

Dear Editor:
Tuesday, Dec. 14 the voters in Circleville, Logan Elm, and Westfall School Districts will have the opportunity to vote for an operating levy for the Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational School.

At the General Election in November, approval was given to build the proposed school, but the 1.7 mill operating levy was defeated. In order to secure the 50 per cent state matching funds, for construction, the operating levy must be passed, even though it will not be collectable until 1973.

I urge your support at the polls, so that our vocational school can become a reality.

Respectfully,
NELSON L. STEVENS
President Pickaway-Ross Joint Vocational Board of Education

Inmate Faces Theft Charge

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Richard Powell, 21, of Cleveland, charged with pocket picking, now has a cell of his own and faces a second charge of picking pockets — this time, those of a cellmate.

Police said Powell was arrested Nov. 29 and charged with taking $33 from the coat pocket of a woman. He was in Cleveland Jail awaiting a hearing in Municipal Court on the charge when a gambling suspect was placed in his cell Saturday.

The gambling suspect told police he put his wristwatch in his pocket and went to sleep. When he awoke, he told police, his watch and a property receipt for $45 were missing from his pocket.

Police said they found the watch in Powell's pocket. Powell told officers he had purchased the watch for $5.

He has a cell of his own now.

active payment of all raises up to the present, but told the union it would have to come back for further approval of the last three raises, which total 15.4 per cent and begin falling due next April 1. This also applies to other rail unions.

The Pay Board apparently ended its quarrel with the Construction Industry Stabilization Committee, a presidential panel set up before the freeze to restrain pay increases in the construction trades.

The committee, supposedly administering Pay Board policies, had approved retroactive payment of nearly all construction wages lost in the freeze. It also approved scores of new contracts negotiated before the freeze and calling for raises far in excess of the 5.5 limit.

But committee Chairman John Dunlop, in what was described on all sides as a friendly meeting with the Pay Board, said the committee believed it had operated within the board's contracts negotiated after the freeze would be closer to the 5.5 limit.

The Price Commission signaled to industry an inclination to grant company-wide block price increases rather than the product-by-product boosts sought by most firms. This, a qualified source said, was the message in the commission's approval of a 3.6-per-cent average increase in all mill products of U.S. Steel, America's largest steel firm.

Later, the firm raised prices 7.7 per cent on sheet, strip and tin mill products, but said that did not raise the average for all its products more than 3.6 per cent.

The Pay Board scheduled for Tuesday a review of a new United Auto Workers contract covering 11,000 employees of North American Rockwell Corp. and considered a pattern-setter for the aerospace industry.

President Nixon signed a bill cutting taxes $15.8 billion over three years for businesses and individuals, saying it will "benefit the economy and benefit all America."

The House approved a bill to extend Nixon's control over the economy for a year after its present scheduled expiration date next April 30. In a 209-151 vote it toned down a provision to grant retroactive payment of raises held up by the freeze.

The Senate version of the bill would grant back pay for nearly all lost raises. A joint conference committee must now work out a compromise.

Over 200 Hear Annual Boys Choir Concert

A large group of parents and interested persons attended the Annual Christmas Concert of the Circleville Boys' Choir held at the Community United Methodist Church yesterday afternoon.

The audience of over 200 enjoyed the Yuletide concert of the choir which is composed of 35 boys from Circleville and Pickaway County.

The first section of the program consisted of songs typically heard in England sung by choir boys and men. Following this, the choir presented an interesting section of songs telling the story of the birth at Bethlehem as seen by animals and the events surrounding the manger scene.

The second section of the concert began with the boys wearing their sport outfits and consisted of more popular and well known Christmas favorites. Many of the boys performed in solo numbers, duets, and a group of six boys gave a new arrangement of "Deck the Hall".

The director, Paul Dunkle, introduced each of the choir boys and gave recognition to Mrs. Hazel Yeatts who prints the programs for each concert.

Bill Hulce recorded the concert and is preparing the tape for radio broadcast next week. In addition to parents and friends, many former members of the choir were present and assisted with the program.

Following the concert, many donations were made to the choir from those in attendance, to help with the expenses and to provide necessary funds for boys in the choir in the future.

This Thursday the boys will sing for patients at the Circleville Home and Hospital as they have done each year since the choir was organized in 1968.

Tiger Cagers Annihilate Hamilton, 93-59

After battling on even terms in the first period, the Circleville Tigers limited the Hamilton Township quintet to seven points in the second frame and came up with a 93-59 victory Saturday on the Rangers' court.

It was the sticky man to man defense of the Tigers that created an offense good for 27 points in the period as it caused the Rangers to commit a rash of turnovers.

Terry Morrison paced the Red and Black offense with 11 of 14 from the floor and the blond bomber hit three of four from the charity stripe for 25 markers for the night.

Everyone played for Circleville with 12 getting into the scoring parade.

DAVE Truex added 23 for the Tigers, Don Valentine had 12, Dan Graham 10, Greg Hoskins eight, Kent Wolfe four, Glen Gillespie three, Dave Grigg, Tim Burns and Scott Clifton each had two with Randy Sprout and Jim Neal adding one point apiece.

Jones had 15 markers to lead the Rangers, Murphy, Crooks and Tuffs added nine apiece.

Stinebrink hit six, Beck and Miller each had four, Hill two and Thornton one for the losers.

A 1-2-2 zone defense thrown up by the Rangers failed to stop the hot handed Tigers who penetrated it without any difficulty and were getting the good percentage shots from the floor.

Despite being down by 29 points at the conclusion of the third canto, Hamilton stayed in the zone until the last four minutes of the game when they changed to a man to man.

It was Circleville on top 17-15 at the end of the first eight minutes of play but the Tigers cut the Rangers apart in the second quarter for a 44-22 lead at halftime.

The Tigers upped the count to 69-40 at the end of three periods and were home free in the final canto.

SQUAD depth is beginning to show for Circleville as Coach John Lawhorn was able to go to his bench throughout the contest with Kent Wolfe and Greg Hoskins looking very good.

Circleville was 33 of 71 from the floor and 27 of 38 from the charity stripe while Hamilton had 23 of 56 from the field and 13 of 23 from the free throw line.

It was a fine board effort on the part of the Tigers who had 22 offensive and 31 defensive rebounds. Truex and Graham led the Red and Black board performance.

Hamilton was limited to 10 offensive and 17 defensive picks from the boards.

"We felt we did a good job of moving the ball against the zone defense," Coach Lawhorn commented, "and were getting the good shots."

The tight defense of the Tigers forced the Rangers into 23 turnovers while the Red and Black misplayed the ball 12 times.

KRIS Kline put on a powerful display as he netted 30 tipples and came down with 17 rebounds to lead the reserves to a 59-35 win over the little Rangers. Robin Martin hooped 12 for the Tigers.

Circleville is now 3-2 for the season and will host Washington C. H. in a South Central Ohio League clash Friday night.

10 The Circleville Herald, Mon. Dec. 13, 1971
Circleville, Ohio

SCOTTY — Scotty Whitmire, the 10-year-old youngster suffering from Dawson's encephalitis, a rare and almost invariably fatal nervous disease, relaxes with his toys on a bean bag chair in his Sacramento, Calif., home.

The diseases caused his body to jerk back violently every few moments and the chair cushions some of the reaction. He will leave soon for the National Institute of Health at Bethesda, Md., where experimental treatment is being conducted for the disease.

Tiger Grapplers Finish Third

Inexperience hurt Circleville as the young Tiger grapplers finished third in a tri meet Saturday afternoon on the Red and Black mats.

Six sophomores and one junior competed in their first varsity match for the Tigers and although they were quite aggressive were hurt by the lack of experience.

"WE are a young team," Tiger Coach Brent Bell stated. "Our boys made some wrong moves that hurt them but showed signs of promise and I'm sure they will develop as the season moves along."

The Tigers will be back in action Saturday in the Bishop Hartley Tournament.

Mark Davey, Dave Webb, Tom Frericks and Jeff Harr proved to be the power of the Tigers with two wins each. Harr had a pin and decision and the other three came up with double pins.

Reynoldsburg copped top honors with 76 points, Westland had 54 and Circleville garnered 45.

Bob Goalby Wins Bahama Golf Tourney

FREEMONT, G.B.I. (AP) — "I had all my eggs in one basket in this one round" a smiling and admittedly excited Bob Goalby said.

He was talking about final round 70, a steady one-under-par effort under tremendous pressure Sunday that brought him a one-stroke victory in the $130,000 Bahama Islands Open Golf Tournament.

More importantly, at least for the 40-year-old Goalby, it secured him an exemption from the qualifying rounds for next year's regular tour events.

Goalby, who had had a poor season, had to win this last event on the pro schedule to make it.

"I'm pretty excited, maybe as much as I have ever been," he said after sinking short par putts on the final two holes to win the $26,000 first prize and a spot in the top 60 money winners—the determining factor in making the exempt list.

"It's a matter of prestige," said Goalby, winner of 11 titles in his pro career that started in 1957. "I didn't even know how much money it was for first place. I just knew that I had to win it. It's very important to me."

The New York Rangers' defenseman did more than get the puck on the net Sunday night. He got it IN the net... three times.

The "hat trick" led the Rangers to a 6-1 romp over the Pittsburgh Penguins.

Lakers Win 21st Straight; Top Atlanta

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jerry West, unbeaten this National Basketball Association season, looked down as he untied his shoes. "These shoes haven't lost a game," he said softly.

One of the Los Angeles Laker ball boys was standing nearby. West walked over, handed him the shoes and said, "Here, these shoes haven't lost a game. You can have them. I'm going to get a new pair."

Cleveland Browns Defeat Saints, 21-17

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Cleveland Browns, their berth in the National Football League playoffs already assured, did their best to lose Sunday, but the Saints said, "No, thank you."

The result was a 21-17 victory for Cleveland, more or less by default.

"Son, just a second. Let me have those back. You can have them when we lose a game."

"When?" asked the youngster.

"When we lose," said the hero.

"Gee," said the kid, walking off with head down, "maybe you won't lose."

The Browns lost five fumbles and two interceptions, prompting coach Nick Skorich to term it "one of the poorest games we have played this year offensively."

Laurelville didn't make a basket in the fourth quarter but still managed to come up with a 57-52 win over Gloucester on the latter's floor.

The child's comment bears remembering. The Lakers' Sunday night 104-95 victory over Atlanta wasn't an artistic success, but it did provide Los Angeles with the all-time record for consecutive triumphs, one better than Milwaukee won last year.

105-Pound — Steve Watters lost to Greely (R), 3-4, and lost to Tartentelli (W), 3-5.

The Wildcats found the lid on the basket in the final eight minutes as shot after shot rolled off the rim and they had to convert 12 free throws in the period to gain the victory.

Laurelville led 14-12 at the end of the first period but fell behind 27-24 at halftime.

112-Pound — Pete McDaniels lost to Escolas (W), 6-3, and was pinned by Turner (R).

119-Pound — Joe Smith was pinned by Fow (R) and lost to Wilson (W), 1-8.

126-Pound — Jeff Harr defeated Nole (R), 1-6, and pinned Mathias (W), 3-08.

132-Pound — Dave Webb pinned Cochrane (W), 1-28, and pinned Morehart (R), 1-48.

Fairfield Union Dumps Aces 71-65 With Last Half Surge

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — "In the first period, I thought it was going to be a whale of a ballgame," said Delaware's Tubby Raymond.

LAURELVILLE had 16 of 62 from the floor and 25 of 41 from the charity stripe.

For the Tomcats it was 17 of 55 from the field and 18 of 35 from the free throw line.

Although Laurelville gave up height to the Tomcats, they still beat them on the boards 36 to 18.

Both teams were erratic in the contest with Gloucester committing 33 turnovers and Laurelville 19.

Laurelville didn't make a basket in the fourth quarter but still managed to come up with a 57-52 win over Gloucester on the latter's floor.

Chiefs Edge Oakland, 16-14; Take Crown

St. Louis 19-7, The New York Jets defeated New England 13-6, Cleveland edged New Orleans 21-17, Pittsburgh turned back Cincinnati 21-13 and Houston topped Buffalo 20-14. On Saturday Minnesota beat Detroit 29-10 to take the NFC Central title and Baltimore whipped Miami 14-3.

In tonight's nationally televised (ABC, 9 p.m. EST) game, Washington is at Los Angeles.

"Lenny cut the defense like a surgeon on that last drive," Stram raved. Otis Taylor, who wound up with 113 yards in pass receptions, caught three Dawson passes for 28 yards in the winning surge and an interference penalty on another pass to him accounted for 29 more.

Stram called Taylor's catches on the march "one of the greatest individual efforts I have ever seen."

It is Kansas City's first divisional title since 1966—although in 1969, after finishing second to Oakland in the regular season, the Chiefs whipped the Raiders in the playoffs, then went on to rout Minnesota in the Super Bowl.

Touchdown pass and Stenerud boot earlier field goals of 33 and 14 yards in the triumph that wrecked a heroic performance by quarterback George Blanda, who came off the bench to guide the Raiders from a 10-0 deficit to a 14-13 fourth quarter lead on a pair of Marv Hubbard one-yard touchdown bursts.

The Cowboys opened a one-game lead over Washington and can clinch the divisional crown if the Redskins tie or lose tonight.

While Thomas rambled for 94 yards and touchdowns of three and seven yards, Hill tackled on 89, including a four-yard scoring run, and added 50 more on four receptions, one of them a 10-yarder from Roger Staubach for a touchdown.

And Staubach, who has quarterbacked the Cowboys to six successive victories since winning the starting job outright, teamed with Bob Hayes for scoring bombs of 46 and 85 yards.

John Brodie passed 23 yards to Larry Schrieber for one touchdown and bootlegged the ball five yards for another as the 49ers, limiting the Falcons' total offense to 130 yards, pulled into a temporary first-place tie—with the Rams in the NFC West.

John Hadl of the Chargers completed 21 of 36 passes for 332 yards and four touchdowns, including two to Jeff Queen and a 77-yard bomb to Gary Garrison, to lock the Broncos in the AFC West basement.

"I wasn't counting or anything," Packers running back John Brockington said after he ran for 63 yards and a touchdown against the Bears to become the NFL's 25th 1,000-yard rusher and only the fourth rookie to reach the mark. He now has 1,032.

Tom Dempsey booted the Eagles to their fifth victory in eight games and past the Cardinals into third place in the NFC East with four field goals, one from 54 yards, while Pete Liske combined with Harold Jackson for a 69-yard touchdown strike.

The Patriots-Jets game was billed as an aerial war between Jim Plunkett and Joe Namath, but neither threw a touchdown. The only one of the game came on John Riggins' one-yard plunge following Phil Wise's fumble recovery on the New England five. New York's Bobby Howfield and the Pats' Charlie Gogolak each kicked a pair of field goals.

"We surely didn't play well enough offensively to win," Cleveland Coach Nick Skorich sighed. "Fortunately the defense was able to get the ball back for us." And it was defensive tackle Walter Johnson, recovering Archie Manning's fourth-quarter fumble in the end zone for a touchdown, that sank the Saints.

"I was going to use (Terry) Bradshaw only if I had to—and I had to," Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll said after the Steelers' quarterback came off the bench to fire a pair of last-period touchdowns and beat the Bengals.

Rookie Dan Pastorini, falling under heavy Buffalo pursuit, underhanded a fourth-down pass to Jim Bierne that wound up gaining 40 yards, setting up Robert Holmes two-yard touchdown plunge with 24 seconds to play that gave the Oilers their triumph.

North-South Grid Coaches Selected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Tom Batta of state champion Warren Harding and Dave Hurst of Cincinnati Sycamore will be the opposing coaches in the Ohio North-South High School All-Star Football Classic in 1972.

Batta, whose team rolled up a 10-0 regular season record, will guide the North squad, while Hurst will lead the South team.

The game will be played Friday night, Aug. 11, in Fawcett Stadium in Canton.

Selected to help Hurst were Maurice Pfeiffer of Washington Court House, Tom Korab of Class AA state king Steubenville Catholic and Paul Nestor of Columbus Wehrle.

UCLA Offensive Display Crushes Texas A&M

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
"All we want to do now is go home," said Texas A & M basketball coach Shelby Metcalf.

You would, too, after spending an outrageous evening with UCLA.

The top-ranked Bruins gave Metcalf's crew a rousing send-off back to Texas, railroading the Aggies 117-53 at cozy Pauley Pavilion Saturday night.

"Tremendous, just tremendous," said Metcalf, praising the bullish Bruins.

UCLA Coach John Wooden was almost apologetic after the laughter: "I don't like to win games by overwhelming margins."

The Bruin blitz wasn't as shocking as some of Saturday's other results as upsets claimed three other Top Ten teams.

Ohio University surprised fourth-ranked Ohio State 79-68.

Southwestern Louisiana topped No. 6 Long Beach State 90-83 in the finals of the Bayou Classic at Lafayette, La., and Indiana pulled out a nervous 90-89 double-overtime victory over seventh-ranked Kentucky.

Second-ranked Marquette had an easy time with ninth-ranked Michigan, whipping the Wolverines 81-52 in a mild surprise.

North Carolina, the country's No. 3 club, walloped Virginia Tech 93-60 and No. 8 Jacksonville trimmed Georgia Southern 106-88 in other games involving Top Ten teams. Fifth-ranked Maryland and No. 10 Penn had Saturday night off.

Tom Riccardi scored 27 points and Tom Corde had 21 to lead Ohio's triumph over heavily favoured Ohio State. "They dictated the offense to us," said Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor. "They controlled the game. Riccardi and Corde really hurt us."

"Ohio just worked a lot harder than we did. We'd get a piece of the ball always, but they'd come back with it and put it back in the hole. We got second and third shots, but they wouldn't drop for us."

It helped Ohio to play the game at home, according to Bobcat Coach Jim Snyder: "The home crowd is just like a sixth player," he said.

Led by top shot Dwight Lamar, little-publicized Southwestern Louisiana smacked Long Beach State. Lamar tallied 38 points, about four over his season's average, as the surprising Ragin' Cajuns whipped their third Top Twenty team this year.

Ed Ratleff led the losers with 26 points and, along with Lamar, was chosen co-winner of the outstanding player trophy in the two-day Bayou Classic. Ironically, Lamar and Ratleff were teammates at Columbus East High School in Ohio.

Center Steve Downing scored 47 points and claimed 25 rebounds to lead Indiana over Kentucky. The classy Hoosier junior scored five points in the second overtime period and Jerry Memering sank a final free throw for the eventual winning point.

Jim Chones scored 24 points and had 19 rebounds to lead Marquette over Michigan. The Warriors held Henry Wilmore to 12 points, 17 under his season's average.

Dennis Wuycik scored 20 points for North Carolina and Ernie Fleming had a career-high 42 to pace Jacksonville.

In games involving Second Ten teams, 11th-ranked South Carolina won the Cable Car Classic in San Francisco by beating California 67-57; No. 12 Houston beat No. 17 Arizona State 88-76; No. 13 Southern California stopped Utah 79-67; No. 14 St. John's, N.Y. defeated Seton Hall 103-84; No. 15 Brigham Young downed Creighton 96-68 and No. 16 Louisville defeated Kansas 74-65. Florida State, tied with Villanova for No. 18, defeated Valdosta State 134-65, while Villanova lost to Princeton 82-68.

Condors Top Floridians; Win 98-95

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Condors are looking ahead — at least on the basketball floor.

Amid rumors that the club, averaging less than 500 paid admissions per game this season, is seeking to leave the steel city, the Condors have begun to show promise on the court.

Sunday night, in the only American Basketball Association game scheduled, the Condors won their fourth straight game, defeating the Floridians 98-95. The announced attendance was 1,303.

"I told the guys before the game that this is the last time they would have to look behind them," said Coach Mark Epstein. "We won't have to worry about who is trailing us in the standings now. It's time to start looking ahead to see who we can catch."

With the victory, the Condors moved to a 15-16 record and solidified their third-place position in the Eastern Division. They are 2½ games ahead of the Floridians and 3½ back of Virginia.

John Brisker led the Condors with 35 points and George Carter dumped in 24. But it was George Thompson who broke the game open for Pittsburgh.

With the score tied 93-93, Thompson hit on a bank shot, then sank a free throw after he was fouled on the play.

Paul Walker Aims At Basketball Crown

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Middletown's Paul Walker, who has made a shambles of high school basketball coaching records in Ohio, is aiming for one more state championship.

Walker, who has coached Middletown High School basketball teams for the past 25 years, chalked up the 600th victory of his 32 years of coaching Friday night when the Middies edged Hamilton Garfield 90-86.

Steelers Stop Cincy Bengals; Win 21-13

CINCINNATI (AP) — Surprised John Fuqua said it felt like an eternity before Terry Bradshaw passed him the football for Pittsburgh's winning touchdown.

"It seemed like an hour I had to wait for the ball, but Terry put it right there," the Steelers running back said of the 40-yard play that lifted Pittsburgh into a 14-13 lead.

The Steelers went on to a 21-13 National Football League victory Sunday over the error-prone Bengals.

Bradshaw, who came off the bench to hurl two fourth period touchdowns, explained the bomb.

"I called it in the huddle," he said. "We had to get them into single coverage. Fuqua just floated out and he was all alone."

"I knew all I had to do was to get the ball there. I didn't care what the pass looked like," said Bradshaw, who didn't come into the game until late in the third quarter. "It could have been end-over-end as long as it got there."

Fuqua, all alone in the right flat, scored easily on the bomb and the Steelers, 6-7 to the Bengals' 4-9, were ahead to stay with less than seven minutes to play.

Pittsburgh Coach Chuck Noll explained why he started Terry Hanratty at quarterback and then chose rookie Bob Leahy over Bradshaw when Hanratty separated his left shoulder in the first half.

"The whole plan was to infuse some new people into our lineup," said Noll. "I didn't want to use Bradshaw unless I had to."

Cure For Cold Sensitivity Reported By Medical Team

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Eight-year-old Douglas Moore can eat his ice cream without pain now and a Wyoming well driller says his life was saved because of a new treatment for persons suffering extreme sensitivity to cold.

The allergy, called cold urticaria, can be treated with antihistamine, doctors at the National Jewish Hospital and Research Center have concluded after a study of 10 cases.

The drug cyproheptadine relieved the allergy for nine patients, said Dr. Alan A. Wanderer. The 10th patient, who had the rarer genetically transmitted form of the ailment, failed to improve.

The Moore youngster suffered fainting spells and vomiting, and his feet swelled and covered with hives after he waded in a mountain stream. And, worse from his point of view, the Denver boy's lips swelled when he tried to eat ice cream.

Now, with daily doses of the antihistamine the extreme sensitivity to cold is gone, doctors said.

Antarctic Explorers Fight Blues

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Editor

AMUNDSEN-SCOTT SOUTH POLE STATION (AP) — At the bottom of the world everywhere you look is north and everywhere the scene is the same: flat, with snow and ice stretching hundreds of miles over a 10,000-foot-high plateau. Land is near—two miles down under the ice cap you stand on.

Beginning in mid-February, 22 Americans—8 scientists and 14 Navy men—will button up for a long winter night when the sun disappears for six months and blackness comes and the temperature drops to 80 and 100 below zero. And daily there is some outdoor work to be done tending scientific experiments or shoveling snow into melters for fresh water.

Why do men volunteer to stay? For some it is the interest in their science work or a sense of adventure; for others a way of getting away from troubles and of having time to think and sort things out.

They manage to stick it through but not without bouts of depression. Eighty to 90 per cent of winterover men told an interviewing psychiatrist later that they were depressed during the long winter, said Dr. Lynn Solomon, 27, of Browerville, Minn., who has studied the matter since he will stay over as base physician, fuel officer and chaplain.

"The anxiety and fear are real. For eight months you know you're not getting out. In the depth of winter you couldn't get out if you were president of the United States," explained the young physician with reddish beard and mustache.

The treatment is to talk to the man, letting him vent his feelings, perhaps give drugs and perhaps give him ridiculous jobs or take other steps that make him angry to focus his feelings upon something else, Solomon said.

Still here from last year's winterover party is Gary Brougham of Marysville, Mich., engaged in geophysical and seismological studies and still here "because somebody goofed and my relief didn't arrive a month or two ago. It will be 400 days for me on Dec. 10 with another month yet to go."

"You can't describe what staying over is like—you have to experience it. Overall I en-

Snow, Cold Continues In Far West

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow and cold weather remained over the western mountains today, bringing heavy snow warnings to northeastern Nevada and Northern Utah. Rain and thunderstorms dotted the Pacific Coast and light showers dampened parts of the lower Great Lakes and Atlantic Coast states.

Over most of the country, however, clear skies and warmer than usual temperatures were the rule. Unseasonably warm weather continued in the Southeast, with many localities reporting temperatures in the 60s and 70s early in the morning.

Four inches of additional snow fell on Austin, Nev., in a six-hour period, while one inch fell in the same period on Spokane, Wash., Pendleton, Ore., West Yellowstone, Mont., and Ely, Nev.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 75 at Homestead and Fort Lauderdale, Fla., to six degrees below zero at Alexandria and Hibbing, Minn.

The National Weather Service predicted occasional snow or snow flurries from the western mountains to the northern Great Plains, with snow flurries from the Great Lakes to the hills of New England. Showers are expected in the southern Atlantic Coast states.

Steel Imports Near Record Despite Voluntary Quota

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Steel imports in the United States this year have exceeded the voluntary quota and are heading for a total tonnage just under the record set in 1968, Industry Week magazine said Monday. The 1971 imports had totaled 15,515,540 net tons at the end of October, the latest period for which figures are available.

"A quota program which the U.S. hoped voluntarily observe would for not more than 15,435,000 net tons of steel to come into this country during the full year," Industry Week said.

"Many steel economists now expect steel imports into the U.S. in 1971 to approach 17.5 million net tons—13.4 per cent over the voluntary quota and only about 2 per cent below the record 17,959,886 net tons in 1968."

The magazine said indications are that at least another two million tons of foreign steel will come into this country by the end of the year.

"A big factor supporting this figure is that much Japanese steel ordered by U.S. users but held on shipboard by last summer's West Coast dock workers' strike was still being unloaded in November," it explained.

The strike ended Sept. 30 when President Nixon invoked the Taft-Hartley Law and "at that time about three months' worth of shipments were waiting in Pacific harbors," Industry Week said.

Steel orders are being stepped up now that the strike-hedge inventories are pretty well pared down and raw steel production is climbing gradually, it added.

The estimated output last week was 1,938,000 net tons, compared to 1,931,000 tons the previous week.

The magazine's price composite on steelmaking scrap dropped to $29.92 a gross ton last week from $31 the previous week.
